Who we are

art'otel berlin mitte

The gallery-like art'otel berlin mitte is dedicated to Georg Baselitz, one of the most famous contemporary German artists. While staying in Berlin Mitte, guests can admire his original works of art in all guest rooms and public areas. 109 rooms including 14 suites are available in our hotel.

Upside Down Bar & Restaurant

The Upside Down Bar & Restaurant is located within the Ermelerhaus, the historical part of the art'otel berlin mitte. The Upside Down Bar & Restaurant is dominated by a series of original works from Georg Baselitz's "Upside Down" series - which also set the theme for the bar & restaurant.

The Upside Down Bar & Restaurant menu was inspired by Mediterranean flavors, thus delivering a light and fresh selection of snacks and small dishes ideal for sharing.

The listed Ermelerhaus

The palace was built in 1567 in the Breite Strasse, 500 metres from here. The Ermelerhaus was given its name by the tobacco and cloth merchant F.W.Ermeler, who bought the house in 1824. After being sold by the last grandson, Richard Ermeler, in 1914 it passed into the hands of the city of Berlin and became a branch of the Märkisches Museum and after 1945 a Council library. In the mid-sixties it was deconstructed by the city of Berlin at the Breite Strasse and rebuilt in its original form at the present location. Today, the Rococo rooms beautifully renovated in the 90's provide a wonderful location for weddings, anniversaries and other special events.
